

Call for Short Papers (deadline 12th August 2013)

AsiaSim 2013: 13th International Conference on Systems Simulation
6 – 8 November 2013, Concorde Hotel, Singapore

<http://www.asiasim2013.org>

The AsiaSim conference is an annual international conference that started in 1999, and has primarily been organized by the three Asian simulation societies, Chinese Association for System Simulation (CASS), Japanese Society for Simulation Technology (JSST), and Korea Society for Simulation (KSS). In 2011, the Federation of Asia Simulation Societies (ASIASIM) was set up to promote the advancement of modelling and simulation in industry, research and development in Asia and beyond. For the first time in the history of the AsiaSim series, the conference will be brought out of the three countries to Singapore.

The submission for full papers is now closed. We are now soliciting short papers describing work in progress. Please prepare a 4-page extended abstract or short paper and submit via the same submission system (Springer format). Papers must be unpublished and must not be submitted for publication elsewhere. All short papers will be reviewed by the Technical Program Committee and other experts active in the field to ensure high quality and relevance to the conference. Attendance by at least one author of accepted short papers is mandatory. Papers should be written in English, and submission is via the Springer OCS system (please refer to the AsiaSim 2013 website for more details). Accepted short papers will also be published in the AsiaSim 2013 proceedings - Communications in Computer and Information Science Series (CCIS). CCIS is abstracted/indexed in EI, DBLP, Google Scholar, Mathematical Reviews, SCImago, and Scopus.
